

Bountiful biodiversity

The rich biodiversity of Raichak on Ganges comprises of numerous species of plants, animals, birds and butterflies. The chirping of birds, the whistling of crickets and the sweet murmur of the Ganges; all far away from the neon skies of the city. Here the magnificence of nature blends effortlessly with our warm hospitality.

A few winter specials at Raichak on Ganges

- ❖ Rise before sunrise, steal into Pakhiralaya and jot down different bird-calls (the list should go to 38!)
- ❖ Shoot the water falling across three levels at the Infinity Pool (Ganga Kutir) in variously slow shutter speeds and study the differences in impact
- ❖ Photograph the idyllic bliss of a white-masted sail boat plough noiselessly through the river

Winter Celebrations

Bidding farewell to the year 2011 could not get any better. Raichak on Ganges welcomes you to its winter carnival, The Ffort Fiesta. This 8 day festive fever begins on the Christmas Eve (24th December).

So get ready to groove to the music of DJ Vishal and enjoy various other performances. The captivating voice of Babul Supriyo will leave you spellbound. So come and live the moment.

The real essence of Christmas is the Christmas cake. It starts off with the 'Cake Mixing Ceremony', a ritual religiously followed the world over and believed to be a harbinger of happiness. On the 9th of November, this auspicious ceremony has marked beginning of the festive season at Raichak on Ganges.

New attractions

Mandir: It has been a long time since the establishment of Raichak on Ganges. Luxury, entertainment and serenity, we had it all except for a quiet place to seek blessings of the Divine. So we established a Mandir, where guests staying on the premises can spend a few quiet moments as they pray to the Almighty.

Tvastr: It is the memorabilia shop at Raichak on Ganges. It houses an exclusive collection of apparels, show pieces, accessories and gift items. Our fabulous collection of ethnic wear will surely catch your attention. Keep one as a memory of the river or gift one to your loved ones as a token from the river herself.

A smooth drive through Raichak!

The former Indian captain, Mr. Ajit Wadekar had his experience of being by the river from the 5th to the 7th of November. The cricketer was 'bowled over' by the remarkable ambience and hospitality.

He complimented: "Yes, the real hospitality I got it here".
